4 Foreign Nationals Caught Attempting to Fraudulently Obtain New Mexico Driver's Licenses

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – Today, four Mexican nationals were caught attempting to fraudulently obtain New Mexico driver's licenses using false residency documents at an Albuquerque MVD office. Three of those individuals were detained by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Agency (ICE).

Two of the Mexican Nationals were found to have used fraudulent lease agreements to try to obtain New Mexico driver's licenses. They were caught with a third individual, who had already fraudulently obtained a New Mexico driver's license, and was attempting to aid in their fraud.

During the interview process, it was discovered that all three were in fact residents of Arlington, Texas. It was also discovered that all three individuals had been deported in the past.

The fourth individual was also attempting to use a false lease agreement to obtain a New Mexico driver's license. It was discovered that he was a resident of Grand Prairie, Texas.

These cases are being investigated by the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department's Tax Fraud Investigations Division. To report suspected fraud against the State of New Mexico, call the 24 hour Tax Fraud Hotline at 1-866-457-6789.
